Introduction

This is a template made for PhD dissertations at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, and follows the university's requirements stipulated in the Research Postgraduate Student Handbook (<https://www.polyu.edu.hk/gs/rpghandbook/ref-regulations-format-thesis>). The original of this L^AT_EX template was created by Tom M. Ragonneau, at the Department of Applied Mathematics (you can access it here <https://github.com/ragonneau/phd-thesis-template>), and subsequently modified by Gábor Parti, Department of Chinese and Bilingual Studies. This version is tailored for linguistics-oriented theses, and supports multi-scripted documents. It is optimized for LuaL^AT_EX.

A thesis submitted for examination purpose should include the words 'Initial Submission for Examination Purpose' lettered on the front cover.
